

If someone tells you they may have experienced sexual violence:

WHAT TO DO:

1. If someone tells you they have experienced sexual violence, first offer them support, listen to them, and encourage them to seek help and counseling as soon as possible.
2. If the individual's safety is an immediate concern, call 911 or contact SPH Security or Maria College Security.
3. Give them this card.
4. Report the incident to the Title IX coordinator in accordance with the policy listed on the back of this card.
5. If you have any questions about the process, please call the Title IX coordinator at: (518) 331-1160.

• SPH - St. Peter's Hospital

WHO NEEDS TO REPORT?

All SPHCON employees are required to report to:

Title IX Coordinator: (518) 331-1160

Exceptions to reporting are made for employees who operate under statutorily protected confidentiality (i.e. licensed health services, campus counseling services, Employee Assistance Program [EAP]), and sexual assault advocates.)

If you have questions about whether to report, please call the Title IX Coordinator.

Why You Need to Report

- To ensure the individual has access to all available resources.
- To enhance campus safety.
- To comply with Title IX and other federal and state regulations.

Services are free

TELL THE INDIVIDUAL:

Read the following paragraph to a person reporting sexual violence to you:

"You have the right to make a report to SPH Security or Maria College Security, local law enforcement, and/or NYS Police, or choose not to report; to be protected by SPHCON from retaliation for reporting an incident, and to receive assistance and resources from SPHCON."

Prohibition on Retaliation

SPHCON has a strong prohibition against retaliation. The college does not tolerate acts of retaliation against anyone for filing a complaint or participating in an investigation. Every effort will be made to protect your privacy.
